Dear Mr. Nabrit,

With the pride and remembrance of happy days that I have received letters and cards from my Alma Mater. Since we are kept very busy, I have not had an opportunity to tell you how much we appreciate these letters. They go a long way toward helping my classmate and reminding us that you are fighting among other things for our children to enjoy the same educational opportunities in a free democratic land. There are many of us here who are proud of the mission which makes for a deeper fraternal feeling among us. Of course, due to the demands of combat, we rarely see each other unless our work is closely associated. However, when we see one another, that old school spirit prevails. About one week ago, I had the privilege to read the recent Howard Bulletin. It afforded me a chance to read what my schoolmates are doing in other theaters of war. Our fervent prayer each day and night is to return once again to our loved ones and the things that are held dear close to our hearts. Perhaps then all of H.V.'s sons who are engaged in this great conflict can meet on the campus once again. Best love and good luck. Sincerely,

James T. Toliver, Capt.
